

Law Students Volunteering for our Annual GAPABA Gala in May

Who We Are

The Georgia Asian Pacific American Bar Association (GAPABA) was founded in 1993 by a handful of members who strove to establish a support network for APA attorneys and those interested in Asian American legal issues. Combining for Asian sounding names in the Georgia Bar Directory, the chapter was born with 13 original Charter Members, who include the Hon. Alvin T. Wong, Judge, State Court of DeKalb County, the Hon. Chung Lee, Duluth Municipal Court, and Prof. Natsu Saito, of Georgia State University. As the Association has grown, so has our mission and purpose. We are now comprised of over 400 paid members, including general and in-house counsel, judges, big law partners and associates, government and non-profit attorneys, solo & small firm practitioners, and law students. We are the local chapter of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association \(NAPABA\).

Get Involved with GAPABA: Join a Committee!

The best way to get involved in GAPABA is to volunteer for a committee:

- The Programming Committee plans our activities for the calendar year, and is responsible for outreach and organizing activities with other bar associations and organizations.
- The GAPABA Young Lawyers Division was recently inaugurated in March 2015 for the purpose of encouraging more involvement and interaction of GAPABA members with 5 years or less of legal experience, and/or age 40 or younger.
- The Communications Committee provides regular information to our membership, including events and job announcements. It is responsible for e-blasts, developing our social media strategy, and for updating and administering our Facebook & LinkedIn pages and website.
- The Judiciary Committee creates events that promote knowledge about Georgia's judiciary, and provides support for vetted candidates for judicial appointments.
- The Membership & Strategic Planning Committee is responsible for developing and expanding our membership roster as well as increasing member participation/involvement. It is also responsible for suggesting new and creative ways for membership growth and short and long term goals for GAPABA.
- The Pro Bono Committee develops and supports involvement with community activities and providing pro bono assistance.
