

BIOGRAPHY

Tara Ann Plimpton
General Counsel
GE Energy Connections

Tara Ann Plimpton is the General Counsel for GE Energy Connections an $11+ billion division of the General Electric Company. Energy Connections through its 47,000 employees in over 150 locations across the globe, makes efficient, resilient and reliable energy systems a reality.

In addition to her General Counsel role, Tara leads the GE Energy Connections Women's Network, serves on the board of GE's legal diversity and inclusion board, and as a Board member of the Atlanta United Way.

Tara joined GE in 2002 and prior to her current role served as General Counsel for GE Transportation, GE Sensing and Inspection Technologies, and GE Optimization.

Before joining GE, Tara served as a member and later Managing Partner at the law firm of Brooke, Shaw, Plimpton & Zumpft as well as a Judicial Clerk for the Nevada Supreme Court. She also has taught International Law at the University of Nevada, Reno.

For over 20 years, Tara has been a trusted advisor to executive management with deep experience in building foundational legal programs, structuring and negotiating transactions, and building diverse teams.

Tara attended the University of Massachusetts, Amherst and the University of Nevada, Reno, where she received a B.A. in International Affairs. She later earned her Juris Doctor from Georgetown Law Center. Tara and her husband, Steve, currently reside in Atlanta, GA with their two children, Taylor and Thomas.