

Angela Hsu
Vice President, Legal
Duke Realty Corporation

Angela Hsu holds the title of Vice President, Legal at Duke Realty Corporation, a Fortune 500 publicly traded industrial real estate company with a presence in 22 states in the U.S.

In her capacity as Vice President, she manages the legal group that supports all of the capital transactions, investment sales and corporate contracts for all of Duke Realty's markets. She is responsible for joint ventures, M&A, financing and the corporate function for Duke Realty. Prior to joining Duke Realty, Angela has worked at various in house legal departments and worked for the private law firm of Altman, Kritzer and Levick.

She holds a juris doctor degree from Emory University School of Law and has an undergraduate degree in Architecture and Environmental Design from University of California at Berkeley with honors. While at Emory University, Angela founded the Asian Law Students Association.

Over the course of her professional career, she served on the board of the Regional Leadership Foundation and the Emory University Board of Visitors. Angela was also President of the Georgia Chapter of the Organization of Chinese Americans from 1997 to 1999.

She currently serves as Chairman of the Board of the Georgia Commission on Equal Opportunity, an agency of the State of Georgia. Angela is also on the Campus Planning Committee for Westminster School, Atlanta and serves on the first advisory board for the Emory University School of Law Transactional Law Center. She has been invited to rejoin the board of the Georgia Asian Pacific Bar Association in 2018.

In her free time, Angela coaches the Atlanta International School High School Mock Trial Team. Her family includes husband Jack Chen, a physician, and daughter Julia Chen, and son Alex Chen.