

Jamie Ensley
President
Georgia Log Cabin Republicans

Jamie Ensley joined the Log Cabin National Board in 2008 and is now the organization's immediate past chairman. He also serves as president of the Georgia Log Cabin Republicans. In addition, he currently serves as campaign treasurer for the campaigns of Harrison Lance for State Senate- District 6, Tayrn Bowman for State House - District 40, and Lyndsey Rudder for State Appeals Court.

In 2010, Jamie was the second witness during the Don't Ask, Don't Tell (DADT) trial held in Federal Court in Riverside, California. Federal Court Judge Virginia Philips ruled that DADT was unconstitutional, and in the court's final opinion, it stated that "Mr. Ensley's testimony was both candid and credible". This court victory was the final catalyst that influenced Congress to repeal DADT. Also in 2010, Ensley was honored to serve as one of the Grand Marshals for Atlanta Pride's 40th Anniversary Celebration.

Jamie is a former board chairman of the Atlanta Dogwood Festival. He served as board treasurer of Georgia Equality from 2004 until 2014. He served as campaign treasurer for former Rep. Mike Jacobs and the Atlanta Mayoral and City Council campaigns for Mary Norwood. He also served as a past board treasurer for the Atlanta Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Executive Network, and the Dekalb Council for the Arts.

Jamie is Vice President and SBA Business Development Officer with Pacific Western Bank, which is headquartered in Beverly Hills, CA. He is an Atlanta native, but was raised in the mountains of North Georgia. He holds a B.S. in Economics from Louisiana State University.
