

Jessie K. Liu

Former U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia

Jessie K. Liu served as the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, the nation's largest United States Attorney's Office, from 2017 to 2020, and as chair of the Attorney General's Advisory Committee, a small group of United States Attorneys who advise the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General on issues affecting the United States Attorney's Offices, from 2019 to 2020. She previously served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the District of Columbia, as well as Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division; Counsel to the Deputy Attorney General for national security affairs; and Deputy Chief of Staff for the Department of Justice's National Security Division.

Immediately prior to her confirmation as United States Attorney, she served as Deputy General Counsel for the Department of the Treasury. In addition, she has been a partner at the law firms of Jenner & Block, where she was a co-chair of the White Collar Criminal Defense and Investigations practice group and a member of the firmwide Management Committee, and at Morrison & Foerster, where she was appointed to the Board of Directors to advise firm leadership on a wide array of strategic and firm governance issues.

Ms. Liu clerked for then-Chief Judge Carolyn Dineen King of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. She received her A.B., summa cum laude, from Harvard University, and her J.D. from Yale Law School.
