

Byung J. "BJay" Pak

Partner | Alston & Bird

Former U.S. Attorney, N.D. Ga.

Byung J. "BJay" Pak is currently a Partner in the Litigation and Trial Practice group at Alston & Bird, where he concentrates his practice on white collar and government enforcement matters. From 2017 to 2021, BJay served as the 25th Senate-confirmed United States Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia.

From 2011 to 2017, BJay served in the Georgia General Assembly as a State Representative from the 108th District, where he was a Deputy Majority Whip, the Vice Chair of the Judiciary Non-Civil Committee, and the Chairman of the Gwinnett County (the 2nd most populous Georgia county) Legislative Delegation.

BJay has been consistently recognized by Chambers USA; as a "Super Lawyer" by Atlanta Magazine; and as one of 100 Most Influential Georgians by Georgia Trend Magazine. In 2018, the Korean Prosecutors Association named him "Prosecutor of the Year" and in 2019, he was awarded the "Trailblazer Award" by NAPABA.

BJay earned his law degree, summa cum laude, and Order of the Coif, from the University of Illinois College of Law. Upon graduating from law school, he clerked for Honorable Richard Mills, United States District Judge for the Central District of Illinois. A graduate of Stetson University in DeLand, FL, he was a Florida Academic Scholar, a member of the Omicron Delta Kappa, and was on the Interfraternity Council. He is a registered Certified Public Accountant in the State of Illinois.