

Komal Patel

Assistant General Counsel | Litigation, Antitrust & Regulatory

Delta Air Lines

Komal Patel is Assistant General Counsel on the Litigation, Antitrust & Regulatory team at Delta Air Lines, Inc. where she is responsible for handling a wide range of commercial and intellectual property matters, including class actions, trademark, patent, and copyright claims, antitrust litigation, and other complex commercial disputes.

Prior to joining Delta, Komal was a litigator at Home Depot U.S.A., Inc. where she managed the company's intellectual property docket, as well as other commercial litigation matters and investigations. Komal began her career at King & Spalding as an associate on the Business Litigation team. Komal is an active member of the Atlanta community, and serves on the Board of Directors of Odyssey Atlanta, an organization that promotes higher education for underprivileged children through a summer enrichment program focused on a STEAM curriculum.