

Emily Liu

Global Director of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Assurant

Emily is Global Director of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion at Assurant, a Fortune 500 company that is a leading global business services company supporting the advancement of the connected world. Emily is responsible for progressing and implementing Assurant's DEI strategy and integrated enterprise program for over 13,000 employees in 21 countries. She is a member & former Executive Board Member of the Atlanta Diversity Management Advocacy Group (ADMAG).

Prior to Assurant, Emily worked at Emory University for 8+ years. While serving as Director of Emory Law School's Center for Professional Development & Career Strategy, Emily coached hundreds of law students on career strategies and navigating the professional world. Her passion for D&I led her to create a special D&I role, and she became Emory Law Career Center's first Manager of Diversity and Inclusion. At Emory's Goizueta Business School, Emily advised employers in Tech, Financial Services, and CPG sectors nationwide on MBA recruiting strategy, and provided consultation on how to achieve their recruiting and D&I goals.

Emily started her professional career as an Associate at Skadden, Arps in NYC. She worked on various Real Estate matters in connection with multi-million-dollar transactions, including Mergers & Acquisitions. As a dedicated volunteer attorney, Emily worked with the Legal Aid Society in East Harlem and litigated child abuse/neglect proceedings in Brooklyn Family Court. These experiences taught her the power of advocacy as she counseled low-income, minority communities facing housing, family law, public benefits, and immigration issues.

Emily holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Michigan Law School (cum laude) and a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from Ithaca College (summa cum laude). Her work has been published nationally, and she is a seasoned public speaker. A native of Rochester, NY, she currently lives in Atlanta, GA.
