

Timothy Wang

Timothy Wang is Managing Director at Delta Air Lines, where he leads the operational and commercial teams for the Delta Connection business division. Delta Connection is one of the world's largest regional airline systems, with over 300 aircraft and 1,500 daily flights throughout North America and the Caribbean. Previously, Timothy served as Associate General Counsel, leading the team responsible for providing legal strategy and support on technology, commercial, and intellectual property matters across Delta's global operations.

Prior to joining Delta, Timothy was a senior associate at Alston & Bird, where he advised clients on complex corporate and financial transactions, with a particular focus on FinTech. Before his legal career, Timothy was the head of economic development for Montgomery, Alabama, where he served a critical role in establishing Alabama as a global automotive production powerhouse.

Timothy is the immediate past-President of the Georgia Asian Pacific American Bar Association and is one of the founders of the National AAPI Crime Victims and Education Fund. Timothy also serves on the executive committees of the Atlanta Bar Foundation, the Clayton County Chamber of Commerce, and the Metro Atlanta Regional Business Coalition.

Timothy received a BA in Economics and East Asian Studies from Harvard University and a JD from the University of Michigan. Timothy and his spouse Jessica live in Atlanta with their two daughters.

