

Burt M. Fealing

Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary
Southwire Company

Burt M. Fealing serves as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary for Southwire Company, a privately held global manufacturer with more than $6 billion of revenue.

In his role, Fealing leads the company's legal, compliance and government affairs function. In addition to overseeing all regulatory matters, Fealing leads the company's Environmental, Sustainability, Risk Management and Internal Audit functions. Since joining Southwire, Fealing has been instrumental in driving sustainability initiatives, championing diversity and inclusion efforts and redefining how corporate functions partner with their business units to reduce risk and improve EBIT performance.

Prior to joining Southwire, Fealing served as Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary at ITT Corporation where he directed global legal operations. Fealing has also held leadership roles at SUPERVALU and Verizon Communications.

Civically, Fealing serves on numerous nonprofit organizations, including the Georgia Partnership for Excellence in Education and most recently, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta and the Pro Bono Partnership of Westchester, NY. He is a member of the 2018 Class of Leadership Atlanta, the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, and the Rotary Club of Atlanta.

Fealing earned his Bachelor of Arts degree with a double major in economics with honors and psychology from Williams College and his Juris Doctorate from Harvard Law School. He is a member of the State Bars of Massachusetts and Georgia and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court.
