

Kenya T. Pierre, Esq.

Vice-President

General Counsel

400 Perimeter Center Terrace, Suite 750, Atlanta, GA 30346

www.arauco-na.com

Kenya Pierre is a cum laude Chemistry/pre-med graduate of Spelman College and a Law Review graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Law. Kenya first started her law career as a patent attorney with the Procter & Gamble Company in Cincinnati, Ohio supporting the Beauty Care Division. She then moved to Atlanta to support global juice and nutritional research science with The Coca-Cola Company. Subsequently, at the Kimberly-Clark Corporation in Roswell, Georgia, Kenya served in a variety of roles supporting patent prosecution and transactions in corporate research and innovation, corporate litigation, global compliance and as assistant general counsel for Global Nonwovens.

She is now Vice-President and General Counsel for Arauco North America, a leader in composite panel manufacturing, and oversees the legal operations and overall compliance and regulations of 11 mills throughout the US & Canada.

Kenya is also a certified 200 RYT yoga teacher and enjoys fitness and ballroom dance in addition to watching her three daughters play volleyball around the nation.